TO HELP COACH STANFORD.

"Hoolah" Whitehouse Returns After Six Years.

The San Francisco Chronicle says: Louis Whitehouse, a constructing engineer from the Hawaiian Islands, has returned to America after an absence of six years, and is at the California Hotel. Whitehouse will be remembered as a notable football player of 1892, 1893 and 1894. He was 'varsity right tackle on Stanford's powerful eleven of 1893, and was right tackle for the Reliance Athletic Club in 1894. But in a greater way than an aggressive player Whitehouse was a football man with peculiar aptitude for imparting his knowledge of the game to his associates, and was recognized as a natural coach.

He has come here for his vacation and expects to help a little with the present Stanford team. Since the abolition by the two universities of Eastern coaches and the substitution of graduate coaches Whitehouse's name has been repeatedly mooted as a very desirable football teacher for Stanford, but a clause was introduced in the athletic agreement limiting coaches to actual graduates of the college, and Whitehouse did not remain long enough to obtain a degree at Palo Alto. So he is debarred from being head coach, but not from acting as an assistant. He learned his football from Walter Camp, the "father of American football," and from "Pop" Bliss, the great Yale player. When he was a 'varsity man Whitehouse played at about 174 pounds. Now he is very round, weighs about 220 and inclines to baldness. [Brother Whitehouse must have lost 35 or 40 pounds on his voyage to the Mainland].

A St. Louis Boodler.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 1.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from South McAlester, I. T., says that Emile Hartmann, a former member of the House of Delegates, who has been a fugitive from justice since September 8th, was arrested last night by a deputy marshal at the residence of his brother-in-law in that city. The prisoner is one of the six fugitives indicted for bribery on the confession of John K. Murrell, another former Councilman under indictment, who recently came back from Mexico, whither he had fled. Hartmann is charged with bribery in the Suburban bill and the Lighting bill affairs and with perjury by reason of his testimony before the grand jury last spring.

Stockton Fire Swept.

Stockton, Sept. 28.—The most disastrous fire that ever visited Stockton burned over seven blocks of residences and the Agricultural Pavilion, where the fair was being held, and destroyed numerous other dwelling houses on either side of the wide swath which the flames cut through. Other buildings were either partially burned or gutted by the flames and water. The loss will be between $400,000 and $500,000.

American Generals Abroad.

London, Oct. 1.—Major-General Corbin and Brigadier-General Wood and their party are at present at the Carleton Hotel here and intend to remain in England until October 18th. Major-General Young is expected here today. The social invitations accepted by the American Generals include dinners with Earl Roberts, Lord Kitchener and Secretary of War Brodrick.

Panama Trains Run Regularly.

Washington, Sept. 30.—Navy Department is advised of the receipt of a cable dispatch from Vice-Consul Ehrman at Panama, which states that the trains are running regularly over the Panama Railroad and no disturbance is apprehended. Occasionally bands of insurgents are seen along the line of road, but they offer no obstacle to the operation of the trains.

Relief From Abroad.

Glasgow, Oct. 1.—It is said here that the Scotch Coal Masters have secured large contracts for anthracite coal to go to the United States.

NOVEL READING.

Son of Alphonse Daudet Calls It Form of Intoxication.

New York, Sept. 28.—A cable to the World from Paris says: Leon Daudet, son of the great novelist, advocates the enactment of a law forbidding the sale of all fiction to women and children on the same principle that morphine and also cigarettes are forbidden in certain states.

Daudet says a morbid appetite for romance is responsible for most unhappiness and dissatisfaction, which in turn breeds crime. He declares that his contention is supported by every scientist who has been questioned upon the subject. He points to the universal warping of the mind and predicts that future generations will scorn novel reading as a deliberate and low form of intoxication.

Looking After Poles.

Vienna, Oct. 1.—Herr Stapinski, a deputy of the Diet of Galicia and leader of the Polish People's Party in that province, announces that he is going to America to investigate the condition of Polish immigrants. He will address meetings in several cities, try to induce the Poles to return to their own country, arrange for those remaining to receive some economic training and organize Polish associations.

The Von Hollebens.

Berlin, Oct. 1.—Embassador von Holleben family at Rudolstadt, where the head of the house settled 450 years ago in Fuedal relation to the Counts of Schwarzburg. Chancellor von Holleben, 86 years of age and the senior member of the family presided at a dinner attended by forty-five of its members. Three lieutenant-generals participated. The embassador proposed the health of the family.

Russia and America.

London, Oct. 1.—According to a St. Petersburg despatch to the Globe, the Far Eastern tour of Finance Minister Witte, who started for Manchuria September 24, will be partially devoted to ascertaining what trade concessions Russia can make to the United States, with the object of increasing the friendship between the two countries and facilitating the raising of a Russian loan in the United States.

Proper Decisions.

A St. Louis Justice has decided that swearing into a telephone is "aggressive profanity," and a Chicago Justice defined the offense as "disorderly conduct." Neither Justice was willing to consider a plea of mitigating circumstances.

British Beef Only.

London, Oct. 1.—The War Office has decided that in the future all army contracts for meat shall contain a clause that the frozen mutton supplied must come exclusively from British Colonies.

Atkinson Resigns.

Manila, Sept. 27.—Fred W. Atkinson, Superintendent of the Philippine schools, has resigned. The resignation takes effect January 1, 1903.

Signs of the Boxers.

Hongkong, Oct. 1.—Anti-Christian and anti-foreign placards are being displayed in Canton.

Decorated by Edward.

London, Oct. 2.—At Balmoral castle today King Edward conferred the Order of the Royal Red Cross upon Mrs. George Cornwallis-West for her services on board the hospital ship Maine during the South African war. Mrs. Cornwallis-West was formerly Lady Randolph Churchill.

No Opium in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Many cough cures contain opium. The effect of this drug is to diminish secretion of the mucus, and the relief afforded is only temporary. As soon as the effect of the opium passes off, the malady returns in a more severe form. The system is also weakened and rendered more susceptible to cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy does not contain opium in any form. It affords relief and leaves the system in a healthy condition. It always cures and cures quickly. The Hilo Drug Store sells it.
